

Why Can't I Go to School?

By Abbi Kruse & The Playing Field

ChallengingBehavior.org

The reproduction of this document is encouraged. Permission to copy is not required. If modified or used in another format, please cite original source. This is a product of the National Center for Pyramid Model Innovations in collaboration with the Playing Field, Reach Dane, and the University of Wisconsin, and was made possible by Cooperative Agreement #H3268170003 which is funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs. However, those contents do not necessarily represent the policy of the Department of Education, and you should not assume endorsement by the Federal Government.

Most days I go to school.

I like to play with my friends.

My teachers love me a lot!

I can't go to school right now.

At school, there are a lot of other children.

When a lot of children are together, they sometimes share their sneezes and coughs.

Sharing sneezes and coughs can make everyone sick.

I am staying home until all my friends
and my teachers are healthy.

When everyone is healthy, we can go back to school.

My teachers love me and
they are thinking of me.

